

Can't Help Falling in Love

Performed by Elvis Presley

Key Excerpt

*Wise men say
Only fools rush in
But I can't help
Falling in love with you*

Song Overview & Meaning

"Can't Help Falling in Love" is a classic romantic ballad recorded by Elvis Presley and released in 1961 on his album Blue Hawaii. The song is built around a melody derived from "Plaisir d'amour," a popular 18th-century French love song composed by Jean-Paul-Égide Martini.

The song explores the theme of inevitable, irresistible love. It contrasts human reason—which cautions against rushing into romance—with the natural, unstoppable flow of deep affection. Just as a river flows naturally to the sea, true love is portrayed as a destiny beyond complete self-control.

Song Details

Artist:	Elvis Presley
Release Year:	1961 (Featured in Blue Hawaii)
Songwriters:	Hugo Peretti, Luigi Creatore, George David Weiss
Melody Origin:	Based on "Plaisir d'amour" (1784) by Jean-Paul-Égide Martini

Note: You can find the full, licensed lyrics for this song by searching for "Can't Help Falling in Love lyrics" on Google.